

watch the children play! Or if the children visit you, let the neighbor know they're welcome to come over and "play."

- ☺ Do your neighbors love to read? Consider buying an extra copy of a good Christian novel and sharing it with them. Or, as you finish the books you're reading, start a "lending library" to your neighbors. It's best to do this with the thought that the books might not be returned.
- ☺ Take a neighbor who has difficulty driving to his/her favorite store, dry cleaner, or the post office with you, when you're going that way. Then, "splurge" and go to a fast food restaurant for a meal or an ice cream cone as a special treat.
- ☺ Take a spaghetti dinner to someone recuperating from surgery. Include a simple garden bouquet and a get-well card.
- ☺ Plan "spur of the moment" or next day coffee/tea or lemonade times and invite two to four neighbors to get better acquainted. One lighthouse says neighbors often are shy about having people in but do want to get to know one another. She keeps her gatherings very simple so they feel they could do it too.
- ☺ Pick up newspapers, mail etc. for neighbors who go on vacation. If you're asked to watch their house, always ask for emergency numbers so you'll know what to do if something goes wrong.
- ☺ Does it get windy in your area? When the wind blows, take the time to pick up trash off neighbors lawns and garbage cans that have blown all over. They'll learn who rescues their garbage cans and recyclable containers. You may get a reputation for being the helpful neighbor!
- ☺ Do you have extra indoor or outdoor plants? Offer clippings to neighbors.
- ☺ Neighbors having problems with their sprinkler systems? Put a note on the door of the neighbors who are at work and make them aware that their sprinklers had a problem while they were gone. One lighthouse made a diagram so the neighbors knew the exact sprinkler with the problem.
- ☺ When you're baking, consider preparing a few extra cupcakes, cookies, pies, etc. Save them to give to a neighbor the Lord may lay on your heart.

☺ A friendly wave and "Hi" to someone who drives or walks by helps them see Jesus' warmth and love in you.

- ☺ Do you live in a neighborhood with an Association? Consider regularly attending the meeting and being involved in what you can, including pancake breakfasts or potlucks. This gives you an opportunity to meet your neighbors in a very informal setting.
- ☺ Learn people's names, as well as the names of their children and pets. Don't be snoopy, but try to notice a new car or a new hairstyle, etc. People love to be given an honest compliment, even about the new tree they planted in their front yard.
- ☺ Change your walking or exercising schedule if needed, to walk with a neighbor. As you're walking, listen to them. It's probably one of the greatest ways to serve a neighbor or friend.
- ☺ Begin a Neighborhood Bible Study. Invite the neighbors who are most interested over for dinner as an introduction
- ☺ Invite one hurting neighbor out for pizza. Maybe this is someone whose spouse has left.
- ☺ Invite two couples in for a simple pizza carry out dinner in your home. Nothing fancy — just a time of getting to know them.
- ☺ Share clothing that your children or grandchildren have outgrown with other children that may be needy in the neighborhood. Give away toys that they've outgrown. Make sure the items are clean and in good repair before giving them away.
- ☺ Are you taking items to the Salvation Army or another donation center? As you get ready to load up your vehicle, ask your neighbors if they have anything they want to donate. That helps the donation center too!
- ☺ Give the gift of a hand written note to a neighbor or friend. Let them know you're thinking about them and praying for them.
- ☺ Host a neighborhood BBQ or block party along with one or two other families in the area. Choose a special holiday or theme for the party.
- ☺ Be the coordinator for a neighborhood gathering in connection with crime prevention and fire safety.
